Editorial Policy

Dai-ichi Life Holdings Integrated Report is designed to inform customers, shareholders, investors, and other stakeholders of our efforts on our sustainable value creation.

In this report, we have refined our value creation process, based on the newly formulated Group Principles and Core Materiality (priority material issues for the Group) in line with the new mid-term management plan, in order to clarify how we will create sustainable social and economic value and how we will grow toward the Dai-ichi Life Group's Vision for FY2030. In addition, we have increased the number of discussion pages to clearly show the connections between each business strategy and Core Materiality, and to more vividly convey the narrative of our story of value

This report constitutes disclosure materials (explanatory documents on business and property status) prepared in accordance with Articles 271.25 and 272.40 of the Insurance Business Act and Articles 210.10.2 and 211.82 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Insurance Business Act.

creation. Moreover, to facilitate understanding of the Dai-ichi Life Group's matrix-type management system, this integrated report contains more message contents on value creation strategies from Group Heads and key CxOs.

During this period of increasing uncertainty in the social environment, we hope that this report will help you understand how the Dai-ichi Life Group is creating sustainable value.

In preparing the Integrated Report, we refer to the International Integrated Reporting Framework recommended by the IFRS Foundation, the Guidance for Collaborative Value Creation by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, and the Sustainability Reporting Standards by the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI).
