1. Consolidated Results of Operations

During the three months ended June 30, 2024, the global economy continued to recover moderately thanks to a slowdown in the inflation rate. In financial markets, stock prices rose due to the increasing expectations for the end of quantitative tightening and heightened expectations for generative AI.

The economy of Japan continued to stagnate due to the decline in real wages caused by high prices. While there has been an increase in inbound demand thanks to the depreciation in yen and an increase in capital investment aimed at decarbonization and digitalization, sluggish growth in personal consumption has weighed on the economy.

Under these circumstances, the results for the first quarter were as follows.

(1) Results of Operations for the Three Months Ended June 30, 2024

Ordinary expenses decreased due mainly to the decrease in provision for policy reserves and others at The Dai-ichi Frontier Life Insurance Co., Ltd.

Consequently, the Group's ordinary profit for the three months ended June 30, 2024, compared to the three months ended June 30, 2023, increased by 93.0 billion yen or 80.6%, to 208.4 billion yen.
