(1) Reasons for the disclosure

The Company previously withheld its consolidated financial forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 due to uncertainty relating to COVID-19. Taking currently available information into account, the Company forecasts its consolidated earnings assuming economic conditions as of June 30, 2020 do not change.

In addition, the Company expects its group adjusted profit (the source of shareholder returns) for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 to be approximately 180 billion yen.

(2) Shareholder dividend forecast

The Company’s dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 (62 yen per share) remains unchanged.

The figures in this release are calculated based on the information available as of the date of this release. Actual results disclosed in the future might be different from the forecasted figures above for various reasons.
