Notice of Expansion of Shareholder Benefit Program

Dai-ichi Life Holdings adds “Benefit Station” to shareholder benefit program

Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”; President: Tetsuya Kikuta) hereby announces the expansion of shareholder benefit program.

1. Purpose of the expansion of the shareholder benefit program

The purpose of the shareholder benefit program is to thank shareholders for their continued support, to deepen their understanding of the Dai-ichi Life Group’s businesses through the daily use of its services, to enhance the attractiveness of the Company's shares as an investment destination, and to ensure that as many shareholders as possible hold them over the mid- to long-term.

In response to popular demand, we have decided to expand the shareholder benefit program to further enhance the attractiveness of investment in its shares, and to enable shareholders to experience the synergies between the Company and Benefit One Inc. and the transformation into the insurance service provider that we aim to achieve through the use of “Benefit Station”.

2. Details of the expansion of the shareholder benefit program

In addition to the health care application “QOLism”, the Company offers the shareholders the membership of “Benefit Station” which is the service of Benefit One Inc, Japan’s largest employee benefits service provider.

It is a discount service that can be used in every scene of life, for example, gourmet, leisure, shopping, sports, travel, learning, and life events such as childcare, nursing care, health, and moving. The number of services is over 1.4 million.

The expanded shareholder benefit program will be available to shareholders recorded in the shareholder register as of March 31, 2024. Moreover, all shareholders must download the “QOLism” app and register by Saturday, August 31 in order to use “QOLism” and “Benefit Station”.
